

one called them heathens, unacquainted with the teachings and example of the gentle loving Saviour whose birthday is annually celebrated.

But does their joint business policy warrant a more charitable view when the merchant refuses to deal honestly with his help, and the newspapers he controls through his advertising fears to call its soul its own and side-steps its duty of telling the truth to the public?

Since the birth of Christ, humanity has grown in the true Christian spirit. Of course like the Israelites of old, some have deserted the true God and worship at the shrine of the golden calf, but the day will come when Christmas will be, not the golden harvest time of business greed some make it now, but all humanity will join in making it a season of universal joy and thanksgiving that typifies the real brotherhood of man.

Until that hour does come let us at least during the Christmas holidays apply the golden rule not only in our intercourse, with our immediate friends and acquaintances, but also with the world at large.

CARRY TELEPHONE AND TALK ANYWHERE

They are introducing vest pocket telephones in some of the cities of Germany. Connections are placed on walls all over town and if you happen to walk along the street and you're in a hurry to tell your wife that you will bring a friend home for dinner, all you have to do is to connect your pocket instrument with the one on the wall, call the exchange get your party and talk to your heart's content.

Taps on This One.

What must a man be that he shall be buried with military honors.

He must be a captain.

Then I lose the bet.

What did you bet?

I bet he must be dead.

I'm the champion long distance cornet player. I entered a contest once and I played "Annie Laurie" for three weeks.

Did you win?

No. My opponent played Sousa's "Stars and Stripes Forever."